

Classes without QUIZZES

A Community Lecture Series

Presented by The University of Western Ontario

The University of Western Ontario is proud to present "Classes without Quizzes", a complimentary lecture series for the community. Join us for topical, entertaining and insightful monthly lectures by some of Western's leading faculty, each taking place at different London locations through to Spring 2010.

ENVIRONMENTALISM AND ELECTIONS IN CANADA: ASSESSING RECENT TRENDS

Concern for the environment has grown around the world. Cameron Anderson, assistant professor of political science at Western, will explore the extent to which environmental concern is a left-right ideological issue in the minds of Canadians and assess the impact of environmentalism on the ways in which citizens view and vote for Canada's major political parties.

Lecturer: Cameron Anderson
Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science
Date: Wednesday, March 17
6:30 p.m. doors open and class begins at 7 p.m.
Location: Civic Garden Complex,
625 Springbank Drive

To RSVP or learn more: programs@uwo.ca 519-661-2111 ext. 85739

classeswithoutquizzes.uwo.ca